How Can AI Empower Health in a Post-COVID 19 World?

Live Webinar – June 12, 2021

10:00 AM (EST) - 5:00 PM (Beirut)

Dr. Sandy Rihana

Professor and Healthcare
Consultant, USEK, Lebanon

As the world fights the Coronavirus pandemic, scientists, healthcare workers, and others are working hard to find solutions. Artificial Intelligence is a prime tool that is being currently used in this fight for analysis and research in the healthcare sector. We will present the main such applications of Artificial Intelligence Post-COVID19 with different case studies at USEK
